GENERAL RULES

7. Each party to this Action that produces or discloses any materials, answers to interrogatories, response to requests for admission, trial testimony, deposition testimony, transcripts of

1 trial testimony or deposition testimony, or information that the producing party believes should be 2 subject to this Protective Order, or any non-party that is required to produce documents, information or 3 other materials pursuant to a valid subpoena or Court Order, may designate the same as 4 "CONFIDENTIAL", "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY", "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR 5 COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" or similar designation.

6 a. Designation as "CONFIDENTIAL": Any party may designate nonpublic 7 information as "CONFIDENTIAL" (or any similar designation) only if, in the good-faith belief of such 8 party and its counsel, the unrestricted disclosure of such information could be potentially prejudicial to 9 the business or operations of such party.

10 b. Designation as "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY": Any party may 11 designate information as "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY" (or any similar designation, 12 such as, but not limited to, "CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," "HIGHLY 13 CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY," "ATTORNEY EYES ONLY") only if, in the 14 good-faith belief of such party and its counsel, the information is nonpublic, highly confidential and is 15 among that considered to be most sensitive by the party, including, but not limited to, trade secret or 16 other confidential research; development, financial or other commercial information; financial data; 17 customer and supplier information; marketing strategies and information; strategic business information 18 including, without limitation, business plans, manufacturing information, cost information or logistical 19 information; licensing information, including, without limitation, license agreements and information 20 regarding negotiations of such license agreements; regulatory information; technical or scientific 21 information including, without limitation, technical data, research and development data, product 22 manufacturing data, technical specifications, and technical know-how; or any information that affords 23 the producing party an actual or potential material economic advantage over others.

24 c. Designation as "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE":
25 Any party may designate technical information as "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - 26 SOURCE CODE" (or any similar designation) only if, in the good-faith belief of such party and its 27 counsel, the information is nonpublic, highly confidential and among that considered to be most 28 sensitive by the party, and the information comprises or includes source code (e.g., computer instructions

1 and data definitions expressed in a form suitable for input to an assembler, compiler, other translator, or 2 other data processing module), Hardware Description Language ("HDL") (e.g., descriptions of digital 3 logic, electronic circuits and circuit operations, including design, organization, and testing), or any 4 descriptions thereof (collectively, "SOURCE CODE"). Nothing in this Protective Order shall be 5 construed as a representation or admission that source code or HDL files are properly discoverable in 6 this Action, or to obligate any party to produce any source code or HDL files.

7 8. If it is agreed by the producing party and receiving party that materials (other than 8 SOURCE CODE) will be produced by inspection, no marking need be made by the producing party in 9 advance of the initial inspection. For purposes of the initial inspection, all materials produced shall be 10 considered as "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY", and shall be treated as such pursuant to the 11 terms of this Protective Order. Thereafter, upon selection of specified materials for copying by the 12 inspecting party, the producing party shall, within a reasonable time prior to producing those materials to 13 the inspecting party, mark the copies of those materials that contain Confidential Information with the 14 appropriate confidentiality marking. This provision, however, does not in any way commit any party to 15 agree to such a production given that the Court's discovery order requires that all document productions 16 be made in electronic format.

17 9. Whenever a deposition taken on behalf of any party involves a disclosure of Confidential 18 Information of any party:

19 a. said deposition or portions thereof shall be designated as containing Confidential 20 Information subject to the provisions of this Protective Order; such designation shall be made on the 21 record whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of depositions as containing Confidential 22 Information after transcription of the proceedings; a party shall have until fifteen (15) days after receipt 23 of the deposition transcript to inform the other party or parties to this Action of the portions of the 24 transcript designated "CONFIDENTIAL", "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY" or 25 "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE";

26 b. the disclosing party shall have the right to exclude from attendance at said 27 deposition, during such time as the Confidential Information is to be disclosed, any person other than the 28

1 deponent, counsel (including their staff and associates), the court reporter, and the person(s) agreed upon 2 pursuant to Paragraphs 11, 13, and 14, below; and

3 c. the originals of said deposition transcripts and all copies thereof shall bear the 4 legend "CONFIDENTIAL", "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY" or "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR 5 COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" as appropriate, and the original or any copy ultimately presented 6 to a court for filing shall not be filed unless it can be accomplished under seal, identified as being subject 7 to this Protective Order, and protected from being opened except by order of this Court.

8 10. All Confidential Information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL", "CONFIDENTIAL - 9 FOR COUNSEL ONLY", or "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" (or any 10 similar designation, such as, but not limited to, "CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," 11 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY," "ATTORNEY EYES ONLY") shall not 12 be disclosed by the receiving party to anyone other than those persons designated herein and shall be 13 handled in the manner set forth below and, in any event, shall not be used for any purpose other than in 14 connection with this Action, unless and until such designation is removed either by agreement of the 15 parties, or by order of this Court.

16 11. Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" 17 shall be subject to the provisions set forth in Paragraph 12 below, and may be disclosed, subject to 18 Paragraph 12 below, solely to:

19 a. The receiving party's outside counsel in this Action and employees of such 20 counsel assigned to and necessary to assist such counsel in the preparation and trial of this Action, 21 including, but not limited to, paralegals, law clerks, stenographers and clerical employees, and excluding 22 consultants, experts, and investigators;

23 b. Any independent expert or consultant retained by the receiving party or its counsel 24 to assist in this Action, and who is not a current employee of the receiving party, provided that (i) 25 disclosure is only to the extent necessary to perform such work; (ii) the producing party is provided with 26 the name and curriculum vitae of the proposed independent expert or consultant and an executed copy of 27 the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, in advance of providing any Confidential Information of the 28 producing party to the independent expert or consultant, and (iii) no unresolved objections to such

1 disclosure exist after proper notice has been given to the producing party. Any objection by the 2 producing party to an independent expert or consultant receiving Confidential Information must be made 3 in writing within ten (10) days following receipt of the identification of the proposed independent expert 4 or consultant. Confidential Information may be disclosed to an independent expert or consultant if the 5 ten (10) day period has passed and no objection has been made. The approval of independent experts 6 and consultants shall not be unreasonably withheld.

7 c. Court reporters, stenographers and videographers retained to record testimony or 8 argument taken in this Action or any appeal therefrom;

9 d. The Court, its technical advisor (if one is appointed), persons employed by the 10 Court, jury, mediators, and court personnel; and 11 e. Any other person with the prior written consent of the producing party.

12 12. If requested, and to the extent it exists and is within the producing party's possession, 13 custody, or control, SOURCE CODE shall be produced and/or made available for inspection as set forth 14 below:

15 a. The producing party may make its SOURCE CODE available at the offices of its 16 outside counsel. Source code will be made available during regular business hours (9:00 A.M. to 6:00 17 P.M. local time) on two (2) business days notice. Inspection by the receiving party's outside counsel 18 and/or independent experts or consultants approved under this Protective Order may be subject to 19 additional, reasonable security measures by the producing party (e.g., the producing party may require 20 presentation of photo identification by representatives of the receiving party prior to permitting 21 inspection).

22 b. All SOURCE CODE shall be made available for inspection by the producing 23 party to the receiving party's outside counsel and/or independent experts or consultants approved under 24 this Protective Order in a private room on a secured stand-alone computer that is not connected to a 25 network, Internet, or to any peripheral device other than a mouse, keyboard and monitor, as necessary 26 and appropriate to prevent and protect against any unauthorized copying, transmission, removal or other 27 transfer of any SOURCE CODE outside or away from the computer on which the SOURCE CODE is 28 provided for inspection (the "Source Code Computer"). The producing party shall install, on the Source

1 Code Computer, tools that are sufficient for viewing and searching the SOURCE CODE produced, if 2 such tools exist and are presently used in the ordinary course of the producing party's business. The 3 receiving party's outside counsel and/or independent experts or consultants may request that 4 commercially available software tools for viewing and searching the SOURCE CODE be installed on the 5 Source Code Computer. The receiving party must provide the producing party with the CD or DVD 6 containing such licensed software tool(s) at least two (2) days in advance of the date upon which the 7 receiving party wishes to have the additional software tool(s) available for use on the Source Code 8 Computer.

9 c. The receiving party's outside counsel and/or independent experts or consultants
10 shall be entitled to take notes relating to the SOURCE CODE, but may not copy any SOURCE CODE 11 into the notes (however, filenames may be copied into notes). Those notes shall be subject to the 12 restriction of this Protective Order and maintained in a secure location. Only those persons entitled to 13 access "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" may have access to such notes.
14 No copies of all or any portion of the SOURCE CODE may leave the room in which the SOURCE 15 CODE is inspected, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Further, no other written or 16 electronic record of the SOURCE CODE is permitted except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

17 d. No electronic copies of SOURCE CODE will be made. The receiving party's 18 outside counsel and/or independent experts or consultants will be allowed to select documents that they 19 believe are necessary to facilitate the receiving party's preparation of the case, including when reasonably 20 necessary to prepare any filing with the Court or to serve any pleadings or other papers on any other 21 party; to prepare internal work product materials; or to prepare other necessary case materials such as 22 testifying expert reports, consulting expert written analyses, and related drafts and correspondences. The 23 receiving party's outside counsel and/or independent experts or consultants will provide the producing 24 party with a list of filenames of the SOURCE CODE to be provided on paper. Thereafter, the producing 25 party shall Bates number and label "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" on 26 all paper copies of SOURCE CODE to be provided to the receiving party's outside counsel within five 27 (5) business days of receiving the request. In addition, the producing party will also provide an 28 additional copy of the SOURCE CODE documents to the receiving party's independent experts or 1 consultants approved under this Protective Order within five (5) business days of receiving the request.

2 If the producing party objects that the SOURCE CODE to be provided on paper is not reasonably 3 necessary to any case preparation activity, the producing party shall make such objection known to the 4 receiving party in two (2) business days. If, after meeting and conferring, the producing party and the 5 receiving party cannot resolve the objection, the producing party shall be entitled to seek a Court
6 resolution of whether the SOURCE CODE in question is reasonably necessary to any case preparation 7 activity. In the absence of any objection, or upon resolution of any such dispute by the Court in the 8 receiving party's favor, the producing party shall provide one paper set of the requested SOURCE CODE 9 to the receiving party's outside counsel and/or independent experts or consultants within five (5)
10 business days. The SOURCE CODE provided on paper shall constitute part of the SOURCE CODE 11 produced by the producing party in this Action.

12 e. A list of names of persons who will view the SOURCE CODE will be provided to 13 the producing party in conjunction with any written (including email) notice requesting inspection. All 14 persons viewing SOURCE CODE shall sign a log on each day they view SOURCE CODE; such log will 15 include the names of persons who enter the locked room to view the SOURCE CODE and the respective 16 times at which each person(s) entered and departed. The producing party shall be entitled to a copy of 17 the log. The log shall not be admissible for use at trial in this matter.

18 f. Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the parties and in writing, following each 19 day on which inspection is conducted under this Protective Order, the receiving party's outside counsel 20 and/or independent experts or consultants shall remove all notes, documents, and all other materials 21 from the room that may contain work product and/or attorney-client privileged information. The 22 producing party shall not be responsible for any items left in the room following each inspection session.

23 g. The receiving party will not copy, remove, or otherwise transfer any SOURCE 24 CODE from the Source Code Computer including, without limitation, copying, removing, or transferring 25 the SOURCE CODE onto any other computers or peripheral equipment. The receiving party will not 26 transmit any SOURCE CODE in any way from the producing party's facilities, the offices of the 27 producing party's outside counsel or the offices of the receiving party's independent experts or 28 consultants.

1 h. The receiving party's outside counsel and independent experts or consultants may 2 not make additional paper copies of any portions of the SOURCE CODE received from a producing 3 party pursuant to Paragraph 12(d), except that paper copies of SOURCE CODE may be copied by the 4 receiving party's outside counsel and used as exhibits in this Action for a deposition, expert report, 5 motion, or trial, provided that such copies are kept within a secure container during transport to and from 6 any deposition, or trial, or for service, and are otherwise kept in a secure container at the offices of the 7 receiving party's outside counsel or at the office of an independent expert or consultant approved under 8 this Protective Order.

9 i. The receiving party may, in this Action, include excerpts of SOURCE CODE in a 10 pleading, exhibit, expert report, discovery document, deposition transcript, other Court document, or any 11 draft of these documents ("SOURCE CODE DOCUMENTS"). The receiving party shall only include 12 such excerpts as are reasonably necessary for the purposes for which such part of the SOURCE CODE is 13 used.

14 j. To the extent portions of SOURCE CODE are quoted in a SOURCE CODE 15 DOCUMENT, either (i) the entire document will be stamped and treated as "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR 16 COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" or (ii) those pages containing quoted SOURCE CODE will be 17 separately bound, and stamped and treated as "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE 18 CODE." Any "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" documents filed with 19 the Court shall be filed under seal.

20 k. Only those individuals authorized and identified in Paragraph 11 shall be allowed 21 to access "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" materials. Under no
22 condition may any person disclose, in whole or in part, copies of, or the substance of, any SOURCE 23 CODE of the producing party to any unauthorized person.

24 l. The receiving party's outside counsel and any person authorized and identified in 25 Paragraph 11 shall maintain, store, and view any paper copies of SOURCE CODE, notes relating to 26 SOURCE CODE, and SOURCE CODE DOCUMENTS at the offices of the receiving party's outside 27 counsel and/or at the offices of the receiving party's independent experts or consultants approved under 28 this Protective Order, in a manner that prevents duplication of or unauthorized access to the SOURCE

1 CODE, including, without limitation, storing any SOURCE CODE, notes relating to SOURCE CODE, 2 and SOURCE CODE DOCUMENTS in a locked room or cabinet at all times when they are not in use.
3 Copies of any SOURCE CODE that are marked as deposition exhibits shall not be provided to the Court 4 Reporter or attached to deposition transcripts; rather, the deposition record will identify the exhibit by its 5 production numbers.

6 m. Except as expressly provided in this sub-paragraph, absent express written 7 permission from the producing party, the receiving party may not create electronic images, or any other 8 images, or make electronic copies (including for emailing), of the SOURCE CODE from any paper copy 9 of SOURCE CODE for use in any manner (including by way of example only, the receiving party may 10 not scan the SOURCE CODE to a PDF or photograph the code). Images or copies of SOURCE CODE 11 shall not be included in correspondence between the parties (references to production numbers shall be 12 used instead), and shall be omitted from pleadings and other papers whenever possible. The receiving 13 party may create an electronic copy or image of selected portions of the printed SOURCE CODE only 14 when reasonably necessary to accomplish any filing with the Court or to serve any pleadings or other 15 papers on any other party (including expert reports), made under seal. The communication and/or 16 disclosure of electronic files containing any portion of SOURCE CODE shall at all times be limited to 17 individuals who are authorized to see SOURCE CODE under the provisions of this Protective Order.
18 Additionally, any such electronic copies must be labeled "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - 19 SOURCE CODE" as provided for in this Protective Order and be treated in accordance with all of the 20 restrictions in this Paragraph. To the extent that the receiving party creates any copies of the printed 21 SOURCE CODE or portions thereof under this sub-paragraph, the receiving party shall maintain a log of 22 all such copies in its possession or in the possession of its independent experts or consultants approved 23 under this Protective Order, including the names of the recipients and reviewers of any such copies and 24 the secure locations where the copies are stored.

25 n. If any party learns that any of the conditions of this Paragraph have been violated 26 (even if unintentional), it shall immediately notify counsel for the producing party and shall make its best 27 efforts to correct the violation.
28

1 13. Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY" shall be viewed 2 only by outside counsel of the receiving party and any persons requested by counsel to furnish services 3 such as document coding, image scanning, mock trial, jury profiling, translation services, court reporting 4 services, demonstrative exhibit preparation, or the creation of any computer database from documents, 5 and by independent experts or consultants under the conditions set forth in this Paragraph. The right of 6 any independent expert or consultant to receive any Confidential Information shall be subject to the 7 advance approval of the producing party. The receiving party shall provide the producing party with the 8 name and curriculum vitae of the proposed independent expert or consultant, and an executed copy of 9 the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, in advance of providing any Confidential Information of the 10 producing party to the expert or consultant. Any objection by the producing party to an independent 11 expert or consultant receiving Confidential Information must be made in writing within ten (10) days 12 following receipt of the identification of the proposed expert or consultant. Confidential Information 13 may be disclosed to an independent expert or consultant if the ten (10) day period has passed and no 14 objection has been made. The approval of independent experts or consultants shall not be unreasonably 15 withheld. Under no condition may any person disclose, in whole or in part, copies of, or the substance 16 of, any "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY" materials of the producing party to any 17 unauthorized person.

18 14. Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be viewed only by counsel of the 19 receiving party and any persons requested by counsel to furnish services such as document coding, 20 image scanning, mock trial, jury profiling, translation services, court reporting services, demonstrative 21 exhibit preparation, or the creation of any computer database from documents, by independent experts or 22 consultants (pursuant to the terms of Paragraph 13), and by the additional individuals listed below, 23 provided each such individual has read this Protective Order in advance of disclosure and has agreed in 24 writing to be bound by its terms:

- 25 (a) Executives who are required to participate in policy decisions with reference to 26 this Action;
- 27
28

1 (b) Technical personnel of the parties with whom Counsel for the parties find it 2 necessary to consult, in the discretion of such counsel, in preparation for trial of this 3 Action; and

4 (c) Stenographic and clerical employees associated with the individuals identified 5 above.

6 15. With respect to material designated "CONFIDENTIAL", "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR 7 COUNSEL ONLY", or "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE", any person 8 indicated on the face on the document to be its originator, author or a recipient of a copy thereof, may be 9 shown the same.

10 16. All information which has been designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL 11 - FOR COUNSEL ONLY" by the producing party, and any and all reproductions thereof, shall be 12 retained in the custody of counsel for the receiving party, except that independent experts or consultants 13 authorized to view any such information under the terms of this Protective Order may retain custody of 14 copies such as are necessary for their participation in this litigation.

15 17. Before any materials produced in discovery, answers to interrogatories, responses to 16 requests for admissions, deposition transcripts, or other documents which are designated as Confidential 17 Information are filed with the Court for any purpose, the party seeking to file such material shall seek 18 permission of the Court to file said material under seal. The parties will follow and abide by applicable 19 law, including CivLR 79.2 and Patent L.R. 2.2, with respect to filing documents under seal in this Court.

20 18. At any stage of these proceedings, any party may object to a designation of the materials 21 as Confidential Information. The party objecting to confidentiality shall notify, in writing, counsel for 22 the designating party of the objected-to materials and the grounds for the objection. If the dispute is not 23 resolved consensually between the parties within seven (7) business days of receipt of such a notice of 24 objections, the objecting party may move the Court for a ruling on the objection. The materials at issue 25 shall be treated as Confidential Information, as designated by the designating party, until the Court has 26 ruled on the objection or the matter has been otherwise resolved.

27 19. All Confidential Information shall be held in confidence by those inspecting or receiving 28 it, and shall be used only for purposes of this action. Counsel for each party, and each person receiving

1 Confidential Information shall take reasonable precautions to prevent the unauthorized or inadvertent 2 disclosure of such information. If Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than a 3 person authorized by this Protective Order, the party responsible for the unauthorized disclosure must 4 immediately bring all pertinent facts relating to the unauthorized disclosure to the attention of the other 5 parties and, without prejudice to any rights and remedies of the other parties, make every effort to 6 prevent further disclosure by the party and by the person(s) receiving the unauthorized disclosure.

7 20. No party shall be responsible to another party for disclosure of Confidential Information 8 under this Protective Order if the information in question is not labeled or otherwise identified as such in 9 accordance with this Protective Order.

10 21. If a party, through inadvertence, produces any Confidential Information without labeling 11 or marking or otherwise designating it as such in accordance with this Protective Order, the designating 12 party may give written notice to the receiving party that the document or thing produced is deemed 13 Confidential Information, and that the document or thing produced should be treated as such in 14 accordance with that designation under this Protective Order. The receiving party must treat the 15 materials as confidential, once the designating party so notifies the receiving party. If the receiving party 16 has disclosed the materials before receiving the designation, the receiving party must notify the 17 designating party in writing of each such disclosure. Counsel for the producing party will inform 18 Counsel for the receiving party of the proper designation for the inadvertently produced document 19 (Counsel for the parties shall agree on a mutually acceptable manner of labeling or marking the 20 inadvertently produced materials as "CONFIDENTIAL", "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY", 21 or "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR COUNSEL ONLY - SOURCE CODE" - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE 22 ORDER).

23 22. If a party, through inadvertence, produces any document or information that it believes is 24 immune from discovery pursuant to an attorney-client privilege, the work product privilege, or any other 25 privilege, such production shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege, and the producing party may 26 give written notice to the receiving party that the document or information produced is deemed 27 privileged and that return of the document or information is requested. Upon receipt of such notice, the 28 receiving party shall immediately gather the original and all copies of the document or information of

1 which the receiving party is aware, in addition to any abstracts, summaries, or descriptions thereof, and 2 shall immediately return the original and all such copies to the producing party. Nothing stated herein 3 shall preclude a party from challenging an assertion by the other party of privilege or confidentiality.

4 23. Nothing herein shall prejudice the right of any party to object to the production of any 5 discovery material on the grounds that the material is protected as privileged or as attorney work 6 product.

7 24. Nothing in this Protective Order shall bar counsel from rendering advice to their clients 8 with respect to this Action and, in the course thereof, relying upon any information designated as 9 Confidential Information, provided that the contents of the information shall not be disclosed.

10 25. This Protective Order shall not be without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose 11 production of any information for lack of relevance or any other ground other than the mere presence of 12 Confidential Information. The existence of this Protective Order shall not be used by either party as a 13 basis for discovery that is otherwise improper under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

14 26. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent disclosure of Confidential Information if 15 such disclosure is required by law or by order of this Court.

16 27. If Confidential Information in the possession, custody, or control of any party is sought by 17 subpoena, request for production of documents, interrogatories, or any other form of discovery request or 18 compulsory process, including any form of discovery request or compulsory process of any court, 19 administrative or legislative body, or any other person or tribunal purporting to have opportunity to seek 20 such information by compulsory process or discovery request, including private parties, the receiving 22 receipt thereof give written notice by hand, overnight courier, electronic mail, or facsimile of such 23 process or discovery request together with a copy thereof to counsel for the producing party; (ii) 24 cooperate to the extent necessary to permit the producing party to seek to quash such process or 26 producing party consents in writing to production or the receiving party is ordered by a court of 27 competent jurisdiction to produce or disclose such Confidential Information.

28

1 28. Upon final termination of this Action, including any and all appeals, counsel for each 2 party shall, upon request of the producing party, return or destroy all Confidential Information to the 10 of the attorney work product will continue to be bound by this Protective Order with respect to all such 11 retained information.

12 29. The restrictions and obligations set forth herein shall not apply to any information that:
13 (a) the parties agree should not be designated Confidential Information; (b) the parties agree, or the 14 Court rules, is already public knowledge; (c) the parties agree, or the Court rules, has become public 15 knowledge other than as a result of disclosure by the receiving party, its employees, or its agents in 16 violation of this Protective Order; or (d) has come or shall come into the receiving party's legitimate 17 knowledge independently of the production by the designating party. Prior knowledge must be 18 established by pre-production documentation.

19 30. The restrictions and obligations herein shall not be deemed to prohibit discussions of any 20 Confidential Information with anyone if that person already has or obtains legitimate possession thereof.

21 31. Transmission by facsimile or electronic mail is acceptable for all notification purposes 22 herein.

23 32. This Protective Order may be modified by agreement of the parties, subject to approval 24 by this Court.

25 33. The Court may modify the terms and conditions of this Protective Order for good cause, 26 or in the interest of justice, or on its own order at any time in these proceedings. The parties prefer that 27 the Court provide them with notice of the Court's intent to modify this Protective Order and the content 28 of those proposed modifications, prior to entry of such modified Protective Order.

34. After termination of this Action, the provisions of this Protective Order shall continue to be binding, except with respect to those documents and information that become public through lawful means and without breach of this Protective Order. This Court retains and shall have continuing jurisdiction over the parties and recipients of Confidential Information for enforcement of the provisions of this Protective Order for a period of two years following termination of this Action.

35. This Protective Order shall be binding upon the parties and their attorneys, successors, executors, personal representatives, administrators, heirs, legal representatives, assigns, subsidiaries, divisions, employees, agents, independent contractors, or other persons or organizations over which they have control.
